

NFL NOTES

Broncos' LB Wolfe is suspended four games

His scary spinal injury behind him along with the ill-fitting 4-3 defense, Derek Wolfe couldn't wait for the 2015 season to get here. He won't be on the field now when it does. The NFL informed the Denver Broncos on Friday that Wolfe would be suspended for the first month of the season for violating the league's policy on performance enhancing substances. In a statement, the fourth-year pro offered his "most sincere apology" to the organization, his teammates and fans, and insisted he took medicine this offseason that he didn't realize was banned. ■ NFL SUSPENDS CHIEFS DB: Kansas City cornerback Sean Smith will miss the first three games of the regular season, including matchups against the Broncos' Peyton Manning and Packers' Aaron Rodgers, after he was suspended Friday for violating the NFL's substance abuse policy. Smith, who was arrested last year on a drunken driving charge, pleaded guilty earlier this year. The 28-year-old paid a fine and received two years of probation. Smith will miss games against Houston, Denver and Green Bay before returning Week 4 against Cincinnati. That means the Chiefs will have to fill his spot with an unproven rookie or backpack for matchups with a couple of the game's most prolific quarterbacks. ■ SAINTS CUT PASS-RUSHING LB: The New Orleans Saints have cut linebacker Junior Galette, who has been among their top pass-rushers the past two seasons and last year signed a four-year, $41.5 million contract extension. Galette's 10 sacks led the Saints last season. His 12 sacks ranked second on the club in 2013. However, he also has dealt with off-the-field trouble. ■ BRIEFLY: Arizona signed free-agent tight end Jermaine Gresham, a two-time Pro Bowler in five seasons with Cincinnati, to a one-year contract Friday. ... The league has required all 32 clubs to notify their fan bases before the regular season begins that they can reserve tickets for any postseason game the team might host in that season. ... Minnesota cornerback Jabari Price has been suspended by the NFL for the first two games of the 2015 regular season for violating the league's substance abuse policy. ... Former Kansas State quarterback Josh Freeman was released Friday by the Dolphins, who open camp next week. ... Dallas running back Joseph Randle has been put on six months of probation for stealing $123 worth of cologne and underwear from a Texas mall. ... Junior Seau's daughter will be commenting only on a video when her late father enters the Pro Football Hall of Fame on Aug. 8. The Hall cited previous policies on posthumous inductions in making the decision.

Disappointed U.S. men face Panama in Gold Cup

Americans hope to build momentum in third-place game.

GOLD CUP THIRD-PLACE GAME U.S. vs. Panama, 3 p.m.

Saturday's third-place match was left to build momentum and try out different lineups. In many ways, those are always objectives for Klinsmann as he seeks to develop a squad that can contend against the world's best. For a coach in his position, the trick is to win enough in the short term to stick around to possibly see through those long-term results. "We want to continue the process toward 2018," he said about the next World Cup. "This is Year One after the World Cup in Brazil, a year of rebuilding the pieces and bringing in young, new players, trying a lot of things out." Klinsmann specifically defended two young players, center backs John Brooks and Ventura Alvarado. The 22-year-olds have been shaky at times in the Gold Cup, and they were unable to prevent Jamaica's Darren Mattocks from heading in the first goal of Wednesday's 2-1 loss on a throw-in. "They have to go through these pains," Klinsmann said. He noted Brooks and Alvarado had made for a winning pairing in their brief tenure together before the semifinal defeat. Panama, reeling from the chaotic finish to its semifinal loss to Mexico, will be without five players because of suspension or injury. On the verge of victory Wednesday, the Panamanians, playing with 10 men, were called for a disputed hand ball. Mexico tied the game on the penalty kick and went on to win 2-1 after another penalty in extra time.

UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA AT OMAHA UNO Pacific Campus Parking Structure REQUEST FOR QUALIFICATIONS DESIGN BUILD SERVICES To All Interested Firms: The University of Nebraska at Omaha is seeking firms interested in providing DESIGN BUILD services for the UNO Pacific Campus Parking Structure. Project Scope: UNO proposes to construct a parking structure on the Pacific campus with 1,200 - 1,300 spaces. The site is located on the east side of 67th Street south of 56th Street. The garage will provide replacement parking for the 320 surface spaces lost with the construction of new student housing at 67th and Pine Street. In addition, the proposed parking garage will provide spaces to serve residents of the new student housing (estimated 355); faculty, staff and commuter students currently using the Crossroads garage (800-1,000); and future resident students on the Pacific campus. The total estimated project cost is $31,300,000. Proposed start of construction - July 2015. Firms responding to the proposal must either provide all design build services in-house or develop a team of professionals that are capable of providing all of the necessary services to design
